

DOCENTS

Trained volunteers who serve as guides and educators and engage visitors in an active discussion about the heritage sites, their treasures within, and the stories of those who contributed to their history.

The English word itself is derived from the Latin word docēre, to teach.

Heritage Sites

Avery-Copp House Museum
Bill Memorial Library
Cedar Grove Cemetery
Ebenezer Avery House
Fort Griswold Battlefield State Park
Fort Trumbull State Park
Garde Arts Center
Hempsted Houses
Lyman Allyn Art Museum
Monte Cristo Cottage
Nathan Hale School House
New London Black Heritage Trail
Old Town Mill
Pequot Chapel
Shaw Mansion/NL County Historical Society
Submarine Force Library and Museum / USS Nautilus
SubVets WWII National Memorial East
Ye Antientist Burial Ground

Thames River
Heritage Park

ONE RIVER. A THOUSAND STORIES.

www. ThamesRiverHeritagePark.org

Thames River Heritage Park
DOCENT ACADEMY

Inaugural Class
GRADUATION

May 12, 2022

CLASS OF 2022

Chris Allan
JoAnn Bromley
Ellen Clark
Caroline Driscoll
Mary Farrell
Cynthia Goetz
Linda Hase
William Havens
Joann Hodge
Pepi Kahn
Charlotte LeVasseur
Patricia Lord
Philip Lord
Linda Mariani
Kimberly McLean
Deborah Morrissey
Barbara Nawrocki
Harry Payne
Freya Phelps
Marilyn Richardson
Marian Sanko
Carol Scandariato
Kenneth Scandariato
Shirley Sholes
Paul Warms
James Weaver

Thames River Heritage Park Docent Academy Graduation

Master of Ceremonies Land Acknowledgement

Catherine Foley
Executive Director

Words of Welcome

Michael Passero
Mayor, City of New London

Keith Hedrick
Mayor, City of Groton

History in the Making

10 Weeks in Review

Oh, the Places You'll Go

Charlotte LeVasseur
Docent Academy Class of 2022

Presentation of Certificates

Deborah Donovan
TRHP Program Chair
Henry Savin
TRHP Program Committee

Special Presentations

Catherine Foley

Closing